

Exchange Queen Mary University of London – Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg

The Making of Reputations: Honour – Glory – Celebrity

Friday, 8 May to Sunday 10 May 2015
Venue: Hebelstr. 25, Seminarraum (Hinterhaus)

Programme

Friday, 8 May 2015

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| 13:00-14:00 | Lunch   |
| 14:00-14:30 | Welcome (Prof. Dr. Birgit Studt / Prof. Dr. Barbara Korte)Introduction and Reflections on the basic concepts: “Honour – Glory –Celebrity” (Prof. Dr. R. Asch)   |
| 14:30-15:30 | Chair: Dr. Virginia DavisMartin Dorka Moreno: Brothers in arms and the walk of life. Achilles,Patroklos, and Herakles on a late 6th century BC drinking cup fromAthensJulia Bourke: ‘A certain madness of the mind’: Medieval Monasticismand the Pursuit of GloryDiscussion   |
| Break       |   |
| 16:00-17:30 | Chair: Prof. Dr. Ronald AschAnais Pedron: The Comédie-Française: between shame and prestigeNicole Paackhaeuser: “The visible public head of the Protestant interestin the World” – The reputation of William III. as mirrored in RogerMorris The Entering BookChristiane Hadamitzky: Honour vs. Honours – the Precarious Case ofVictorian Modest HeroismDiscussion |
| 20:00       | Dinner “Zum Roten Bären”  |

Saturday, 9 May 2015

- 9:00-9:45 Dr. Iain Stewart: The Reputational Politics of the French Liberal Revival
Discussion
- Break
- 10:00-11:30 Chair: Prof. Dr. Barbara Korte
Katherine Rossy: 'The Greatest Detective Story in History': Unaccompanied Children under French and British Occupation in Postwar Germany (1945-1949)
Kerrie Holloway: How to Save a Society: The National Joint Committee's Emigration Selection Process of 1939
Kristina Marquardt: The Victoria Cross Hero as Celebrity: Contemporary Representations of War Hero Johnson Beharry in British Media and Literature
Discussion
- 11:55-12:20 Trainride to Breisach including a Brezel to go
- 12:30-15:00 Walking tour to the Münster (Introduction by Dr. Pia Eckhart)
- 15:30-17:30 Guided Tour at Sektkellerei Geldermann including a tasting of sparkling wines (Please note: A great part of the tour will be down in the wine cellar where it will be quite chilly: 13°C)
- 18:39-19:05 Trainride back to Freiburg
- 19:30 Dinner at Mehlwege

Sunday, 10 May 2015

9:30-11:00

Chair: Dr. Christian Kühner

Clemens Regenbogen: Contested Rank in the High Middle Ages – The Case of Otto I, Count Palatine of Burgundy (d. 1200)

Kelly Minelli: „Le ridicule déshonore plus que le déshonneur“– The impact of ridiculousness and laughter on honour and reputation at the French court of Louis XIV.

Discussion

Break

11:30-12:30

Nigel Ritchie: 'I will leave a name and yours will perish': how Jean-Paul Marat's 'amour de la gloire' drove his bid for posterity

Katharina Jeckel, The Envoys Honour – The Reputation of Experts

Lunch

13:00

Concluding Remarks and Outlook (Miri Rubin)